Strategies of Competition in Western Politics

January 2, 2016 — 20 Comments

Tobias Langdon

It's a mystery worthy of the Twilight Zone. Government inspectors in the British city of Birmingham have discovered "unregistered schools" where children are being taught "misogynistic, homophobic and anti-Semitic material" in "unhygienic and filthy" conditions by unscreened and unqualified teachers. The Chief Inspector of Schools, Sir Michael Wilshaw, says that far more children may be at risk and that the promotion of British values is being "undermined by the growth of these unregistered schools."

Clearly those schools are like something from the Third World. How could they exist in a First World nation like Britain? Why are British children being forced these ideological poisons? Well, the liberal media are very coy about giving full details, but they do speak of a "narrow Islam-focused curriculum" at these dismayingly un-British schools. They also say that the schools have been found most often in "Muslim communities."

The Boys from the Burger Bar

It seems then — brace yourself — that these schools are run by Muslims. And remember that Birmingham was also the scene of the so-called Trojan horse scandal, in which Muslim-dominated official schools were caught exposing scandal, in which Muslim-dominated official schools were caught exposing vulnerable children to similar misogyny, homophobia and anti-Semitism. In other words, Muslim immigrants from the Third World have set up schools in Britain just like those back home. Who could have foreseen it? The mystery gets bigger when we reflect that Muslim immigrants rape children here just as they do back home. And Muslim immigrants mutilate their daughters here just as they do back home.

But it's not just Muslims. At the same time as the White folk of Birmingham learnt about the anti-Semitic schools, they were reading about the jailing of a notorious gang called the Burger Bar Boys, who dealt drugs, sold guns and kept the city humming with murder, rape and robbery. If you examine this photo of the B.B. Boys, you'll see that although they are all male, they are far from stale or pale:

So Black immigrants from the Third World tend toward violent criminal behavior in Britain just as they do back home. These demographic patterns involving Muslims and Blacks are deeply puzzling to liberals, who greet each new scandal with bafflement and dismay. Why do Third-World people create Third-World problems? It's an enigma that won't be cracked without much more research and much more funding for think-tanks and community groups. And while liberals are working on it, they ensure that the Third-World population of the West continues to grow. This lunacy isn't found just in Britain, but in America, France, Sweden, Australia and every other First World nation that has been enriched by the Third World. Liberals are horrified by pathologies that their own policies have created.

on the West despite the opposition of the White majority in every enriched nation? In scientific and mathematical terms, this is a problem in game theory, or the study of strategies for maximizing gain and minimizing loss in competition. These strategies don't have to be consciously designed: game theory is just as applicable to bacteria or plants as it is to chess, poker and politics.

And bacteria prove a very important point: physical strength and size are not essential for strategic success. Medical fields like embryology and parasitology offer many examples of small and weak organisms manipulating much larger and stronger organisms for their own advantage. In politics, the majority does not automatically win and impose its preferences on official policy, even in self-professed democracies. As Guillaume Durocher has pointed out on the Occidental Observer, the statistician and game-theorist Naseem Taleb "has written insightfully on the apparent paradox of 'stubborn minorities' having more agency, influence, and power among political elites than apathetic majorities."

So we should put aside questions of morality and examine the "double standards" of Jews as strategies in competition between Jews and the White gentile majority. Prima facie, it might seem disadvantageous for Jews to encourage mass immigration by Muslims, who are much more anti-Semitic on average than White Europeans. But Muslim anti-Semitism can strengthen Jewish power. When Muslims murder Jews in France, Jews like Moshe Kantor don't demand an end to Muslim immigration, but more state surveillance and less free speech.

Fooled by Gould

Furthermore, the criminality and social failure of Muslims and Blacks can be useful tools of psychological warfare against the White majority. If all human groups possess the same intellectual potential, as we are so loudly told by pseudo-scientists like Stephen Jay Gould, then non-White failure can only be pseudo-scientists like Stephen Jay Gould, then non-White failure can only be explained by White discrimination and malice. In other words, Whites are eternal villains, non-Whites are eternal victims.

After all, they're minorities and oligolatriy, or the worship of minorities, is now the official religion of the West. If the White heterosexual majority suffered from AIDS at higher rates than Blacks and homosexuals, that would clearly be an indictment of the White heterosexual majority. As it is, the reverse is true, which is just as clearly an indictment of the White heterosexual majority. Like water, wickedness runs only downhill: from the White majority onto the minorities whom that majority oppresses.

This explains the apparent paradox of the staunchly feminist Labour party not merely concealing but collaborating with the gang-rape of under-aged girls in Rotherham and other British towns and cities. And feminists don't benefit from pointing out that Muslims and other non-Whites commit sex-crimes at much higher rates than Whites. With rare exceptions, feminists are interested in power and personal prestige, not in helping ordinary women. Muslims are not susceptible to emotional blackmail and wouldn't be remunerative targets if they were. Indeed, more sex crime and sexual harassment mean more opportunity for feminist propaganda and moralizing — so long as the perpetrators are identified only as men, not as non-White men.

Majority Malice

But minorities have another highly important function in Jewish and liberal strategy. They serve as a buffer-zone against self-assertion by the majority, rather as the occupied Eastern European states did for the Soviet Union at the end of the Second World War. The Western powers could not launch an invasion of the Soviet Union without first invading Eastern Europe, and Stalin's paranoia was undoubtedly assuaged by this simple fact of geography.

Similarly, minorities like Muslims and homosexuals are cultural buffer-zones

Similarly, minorities like Muslims and homosexuals are cultural buffer-zones for Jews. In Jewish understanding, European history has been blackened again and again by outbreaks of irrational gentile malice against blameless Jews. When Jews are the only or most highly visible minority in a gentile society, this irrational malice can erupt without warning at any moment. After all, how could Jews know it is coming when they are doing nothing to provoke it?

But when other and more visible minorities are present, hostility towards those minorities by the White majority is a clear warning that trouble may also be on the way for Jews. Conversely, majority tolerance of the minorities is a reassurance that Jewish power will not be challenged. Indeed, the more the majority tolerates bad behaviour by minorities, the greater that reassurance is. Whites are undoubtedly suffering serious harm from the presence of non-Whites in Western nations. When Donald Trump suggests limiting this harm by ending Muslim immigration, Jews are horrified by the threat to Muslims. In reality, they are horrified by the idea that the White majority might assert itself and act in its own defence. The harm done by non-Whites is a feature, not a bug, of mass immigration and minority worship. This is the state inquisitor O'Brien in Orwell's Nineteen Eighty-Four (1948):

He paused, and for a moment assumed again his air of a schoolmaster questioning a promising pupil: "How does one man assert his power over another, Winston?"

Winston thought. "By making him suffer," he said.

"Exactly. By making him suffer. Obedience is not enough. Unless he is suffering, how can you be sure that he is obeying your will and not his own? Power is in inflicting pain and humiliation." (Nineteen Eighty-Four, Part III, chapter 3)

City of Sanctuary

The passivity of Whites in the face of non-White pathologies is proof that Western societies are obeying the will of Jews, not of Whites. This is why organizations like the English Defence League and PEGIDA cannot appease Jews by insisting that they are philo-Semitic and fully support Israel. By expressing hostility to Muslims, the EDL and PEGIDA are moving into the buffer-zone between Jews and the gentile majority and exposing themselves as a potential threat. As we've seen above, Birmingham's enrichment by non-Whites has been extremely bad for Birmingham's Whites (see also the murders of Lucy Lowe and Christina Edkins). But when PEGIDA plan to hold a rally in the city in opposition to that enrichment, the traitorous Labour party and its allies respond with all the clichés of cultural Marxism:

Birmingham's political leaders have united to condemn plans for a far-right rally in the city involving ex-EDL leader Tommy Robinson. Pegida UK has announced plans to gather in the city on February 6 as part of a series of protests across Europe. Robinson said in an interview that the aim was to "preserve our culture, save our country and save our future".

But Birmingham's Labour, Conservative and Liberal Democrat leaders issued a joint statement saying the group would not be welcome. Labour council leader [Councillor] John Clancy and Tory and Liberal Democrat group heads, Robert Alden and Paul Tilsley, said the city was no place for "prejudice, intolerance and hate". They said: "On the day that Birmingham was formally awarded City of Sanctuary status, it was disappointing to hear of the plans for the launch of a new anti-Islamic far-right group. Birmingham is a city that has a proud history of tolerance, cohesion and integration — with people from around the world of all faiths and heritage welcome to make their home here.

"Brummies [people from Birmingham] do not subscribe to ideas based on prejudice, intolerance and hate. That is why the planned launch of a new group in Birmingham is rejected by the council. The best way to demonstrate this is for everyone to go about their normal business on February 6 as a very group in Birmingham is rejected by the council. The best way to demonstrate this is for everyone to go about their normal business on February 6 as a very public exhibition of what makes Birmingham great." (Birmingham unites to tell Pegida UK: 'You're not welcome here', The Birmingham Mail, 8th December 2015)

In reality, Birmingham is neither united, cohesive nor integrated. Large numbers of Whites there are horrified by what mass immigration has done to their city. Like similarly industrial Detroit, Whites made the city great and non-Whites are destroying it. The Labour council in Birmingham, like the Labour council in Rotherham, responds to Muslim pathologies by pretending that they aren't happening. The "Trojan horse" scandal was first exposed twenty years ago and in 2014 the Birmingham Mail reported that "Child sex gangs [have been] a problem in Birmingham for 40 years." The council knew and did nothing (see also here and here).

Punishing the Goyim

But some people respond to Muslim pathologies in a quite different way: by gloating over them, including rabbis expressing Schadenfreude at what Muslims are doing to Europe: "Jews should rejoice at the fact that Christian Europe is losing its identity as a punishment for what it did to us for the hundreds of years [we] were in exile there."

I also wonder at the attitude of feminists like Jenni Murray of the BBC to the mass rape carried out by Muslims in Rotherham, Oxford and elsewhere. Murray, whose autobiography has the "poignant tale of an early 1960s visit to Auschwitz with her half-Jewish father," is not a slim or attractive woman. Does she genuinely care that shiksas are being raped in such large numbers? One thing is certain: the BBC's daily Woman's Hour, which Murray has graced for many years, did not break any of the Muslim rape-gang scandals. Nor did the Guardian, despite the numerous readers it has among the social workers and child welfare officers who were paid large sums of money to "supervise and of social action. It just worked out that way. A hundred different and plausible scenarios for avian history would have yielded other results (and moral dilemmas of enormous magnitude). They didn't happen. "Species" does not exist. We are all the same under the feathers. (Adapted from a famous homily by Stephen Jay Gould)

Cuckoos would also support laws against "hate-speech," denouncing pigeons who claimed that hawks had a tendency to eat pigeons and shouldn't be allowed to immigrate into pigeon societies. But cuckoos would of course ban immigration by hawks into any cuckoo society.

A photograph showing a brown bird, likely a cuckoo, perched on a thin branch and feeding a black and white striped bird chick. The chick has its beak open, and the adult bird is holding a small insect in its beak, ready to feed it. The background consists of green leaves and thin branches.

"Species do not exist!"

As it is, birds don't have language and cuckoos manipulate their hosts in non-verbal ways. But whether it's camouflage or confabulation, the scientific principles of game theory can be applied to identify the strategies used by competing groups. Cuckoos are an avian minority that has flourished for millions of years by exploiting more numerous species of bird. Minorities are not automatically helpless and minorities are not automatically virtuous. That is just as true in the political and cultural zone as it is in the biological zone. In politics, competing groups attempt to extend their zones of control and restrict the zones of their opponents.

Life is always a game of zones. By understanding this, Whites will get better at competing with groups who use mass immigration and minority worship as weapons of psychological and demographic war.

The BBC is such a paragon of truthful reporting, that no one should question anything they say, whether it's about Muslims or 9/11.

How about a follow up story on the millions of male Gentile babies that have their privates mutilated at birth?

My question is when will these British people rise against this biological extermination i.e. voting for UKIP in greater numbers?

Even the suicidal Swedes and once casual Dutch have realised Islam and Muslims are a danger. Sweden has just annouced border checks with Denmark while Austria has began deporting some of these people.

The clock is ticking away. In 2001 there were about one million of these misfits today the number is about 2.5 million and is increasing. Running away is not the solution because the popular destinations also have problems - Australia (Muslims, Chinese, Indians), Spain (North Africans), America (Mexicans) etc.

Some of us of the west mutilate our sons, too (or instead of our daughters).

" more sex crime and sexual harassment mean more opportunity for feminist propaganda and moralizing — so long as the perpetrators are identified only as men, not as non-White men."

I've not yet seen any feminists dare promote rapes by non-whites. Maybe that is why they publicize only the most ridiculous cases. Also by highlighting implausible cases they humiliate the public who is forbidden from criticizing feminist assertions.

Some men's rights organizers touched on Rotherham in order to criticize feminists. Reading mens rights blogs is how I got red-pilled on race. Their colors blindness to feminist insults really started to grate. I have sons.

Feminists are very clear, White men are the target and white babies their bulls eye.

Yet Jews appear to be encouraging multiculturalism/multiracialism in Israel. How does that aid them?

Good article, especially in explicating how Jewry counter-intuitively benefits from mass immigration. I'd add that Jews are promoting conditions in the West optimal for Whites to psychologically identify with Israeli Jews. Whites had little quarrel with Islam when it was over there, making it difficult to motivate whites to colonize and kill Muslims on behalf of Jewry.

This article reconfirms the fact that Jewry is essentially conducting genetic, or biological warfare against their somnolent White prey. The White western world today is quite simply a de-facto Jewish colony that the Jews, by their very predatory nature, are riding into oblivion.

Even during my time in the UK, in the early to mid 70s, the real Britons recognized that Birmingham was a problem. Not surprising, given Enoch Powell was a few miles away in increasingly no-go Wolverhampton. The illusion that our elected representatives actually represent the wishes of the majority is dissolving. Our political masters, who have used "brand loyalty" against us, regardless of our "Western liberal democracy" location, are terrified of Donald Trump. His greatest sin is calling for an end to Political Correctness, a method of inflicting pain and suffering. Mr. Langdon's "Life is always a game of zones" is better stated "In nature, species compete." It doesn't matter whether the species are plant or animal, there are inequalities within each species. The weak ones perish. There is an old saying, wars are the Jews harvest. The primary success of this harvest has been the inversion of nature. I mean the following in generalities, and with no disrespect to anyone. The strongest of the species are sent off to war, where they are killed or maimed. The weaker are left behind to be successful ones in perpetuating the species. This has been their success over the past 200 years. Whites have engaged in fratricidal massacres

These strategies don't have to be consciously designed: game theory is just as applicable to bacteria or plants as it is to chess, poker and politics.

That is a key point, because the critics often drag in the concept of conspiracy as if a group having an unspoken motivation for collective action is impossible.

The ruling class and Jews are actually very afraid of the restless natives.

This is what makes them resort to ever repressive measures to sedate the populace as well as elaborate distractions i.e. X-Factor, The Voice, Britain's Got Talent, English Premiership, baking contests, Richard Desmond's rags, Doctor Who, Top Gear vulgarities, David Attenborough and Bear Grylls documentaries, Graham Norton obscenities, etc.

For the Mohammedians plus Blacks and their spawn their luck will run out when the natives lose all fear of the stigma of "racist" and sanctions thereof. That is not very far. Its a matter of when not if.

May I make a few remarks on increasing our understanding of biological competition.

[1] Birds typically have a reproduction cycle of 1 year, whereas people may in effect be 20-50 years, allowing for the effects of learning. It seems possible that patient observers of wildlife may have important information, though they may not know it. For example, there must be some mechanism keeping cuckoo populations down. Otherwise presumably the entire bird world would be cuckold. Another example is the outlook of the parent birds: maybe they are genuinely unsure that the chicks aren't theirs. Human changelings happen, too: I read some south American maternity hospitals (or staff etc) sometimes take money to swap white babies with mixed race babies.

[2] Are there analogies from physics and chemistry? All atoms have certain properties; but compounds are totally different – just as single ants are a different proposition from collective ants. The bonds between atoms perhaps suggest analogies with bonds between people(s), some firm and strong, others weaker. Some compounds can be dissolved, changing their form in the process. Perhaps there are analogues with catalysts, and enzymes. Just an idea. We need good models to understand the situation; at least they might give slogans or mottoes.

[3] Can I claim that the ‘pathological altruism’ idea is a misdiagnosis? There are plenty of events – mutual battles, bombing, burnings – between whites, and with non-whites, to demolish the idea that whites are not only altruistic, but exceptionally altruistic, more so than anyone else. Surely the diagnosis ought to be along the lines that whites are more idea-based, and so may be influenced by wrong or bad ideas, including deliberate deception? ‘Ideal’ used to mean something based on an idea (in, e.g. Wuthering Heights).

Wonderful article. As someone who holds a professional degree and is sometimes forced to interact with Jews, my observation is that they will often test you early to see if you are someone who has drank the koolaid. They do this by initiating discussion about a “litmus test” topic which causes you to:

- A. Challenge their nonsensical assertion and thus identify yourself as a threat
- B. Profess indifference or ignorance about the topic . thereby signalling your deference to the Jewish world view. ..or
- C. Agree wholeheartedly and signal your stupidity and.or willingness to be used by them in order to gain in some way

Sorry to admit my usual response is (B)..
.Their control of the mass media and the effect that their unchallenged ubiquitous brainwashing has had is such that even among my own ethnicity I am afraid to point out the very obvious control they exert on our supposed leaders.Even those who see if are reluctant to engage in discussions in that direction.

Very, very true. I've noticed this all my adult life. Being a transplant from extremely gay San Francisco to Los Angeles I always told them endless stories about how gays took over workplace after workplace and proceeded to discriminate against straight job applicants as soon as they controlled the hiring and assignment process.

On the black and crime issues I just recite endless, endless black rape statistics which usually shuts up the Jew feminazis.

Of course I'm retired and can do this.

If Trump can get tge White electorate to understand this, he might just stop them becoming a minority in the country their ancestors made.

Despite their low I.Q. these Muslims are smart enough to recognize the benefit of inculcating their beliefs in the very young and not delegating that task to the State. Better filth in the playground and latrines than filth in the curriculum.
